

Story

The Norman Tower is the oldest watchtower on the Amalfi Coast and was built between 1250 and 1300.

This picturesque tower, set among the rocks, was considered a wonderful subject for many landscape painters. We have representations from 1777 and 1817, and the tower is still used as a popular subject to this date. In the 20th century

Luca Albino made several representations of the tower and one of these paintings is on display at the Palazzo Mezzacapo in Maiori and another hangs in the major art gallery of Salerno.

The tower was also a location for Roberto Rossellini's famous movie "Paisà" (Paisan"). There are pictures of Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini enjoying their time at the tower.

Today the tower's hospitality and fine cuisine are also appreciated by well-known people such as Leonardo Di Caprio, Naomi Campbell and the unforgettable Lucio Dalla.

Welcome

Since opening our first restaurant in 1992, we have made it our mission to present our traditional cuisine in new and exciting ways. We are dedicated to using only the freshest and finest ingredients, whether they come from our garden, neighboring farm, artisanal workshops, local vineyards or the sea that surrounds us.

We want to make your dining experience as enjoyable as possible. Ask us about our daily specials, and if you don't see something on the menu that you would like, please ask us. We may be able to surprise you. We are also able to accommodate dietary restrictions. Just let us know.

We invite you to relax in our 13th c. Norman tower where you are able to feast on the beauty of the Amalfi coast and our very special food.

Buon Appetito
Gino, Daniele, Ivano and Massimo
